Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Institute of Advanced Research and Ethiopian Civil Service University

This MoU is made and entered into by and between the Ethiopian Civil Service University located in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia (hereafter referred to as ECSU) and the Institute for Advanced Research (hereafter referred to as IAR) shall collectively be referred to herein as the "Parties"

Primable

Noting that the Institute for Advanced Research (IAR), was founded in January 2012, pursuant to an MOU, with the Government of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, signed with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on 16 January 2012 and registered with the Ministry of Education under: # m-259/986/06 as a non-profit and non-partisan public policy organization based in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia;

Aware that the main objectives of the IAR are the advancement of socio-economic development, the deepening of democracy and contribution to the creation of an environment for peace and security in the horn of Africa and Africa in general through the promotion of knowledge and the dispassionate analysis of situations and processes through research, consultancy, and development related studies;

Recalling that the ECSU was established through a Council of Ministers Regulation No 3 of 1996 as an autonomous higher education institution focusing on building the capacities of the country's civil services;

Recognizing that ECSU's mandates are to design and offer specialized under graduate and postgraduate programs, conduct short-term training, undertake research and publication activities, organize conferences and seminars and render consultancy services.

Desiring to develop long-term relationship between the Parties in order to enhance their research and academic capabilities and promote interchange between the two institutions;

Pursuant to the prevailing regulations in their respective institution;

Have reached the following understanding
